VOL. XXXIII ALBANY, CALIFORNIA Wednesday, July 17, 1968 150 NUMBER 45

BOB DENNIS is gone, but it difficult to accept. We were among scores of those who considered themselves his close, personal friends, and it will take a long time to realize he won't be calling, dropping in the office or calling another of his bingo parties at Treasure Island any more. Bob loved life and loved people. He devoted his years to cultivating friendships with youngsters, his contemporaries and those much older than himself. He never lost touch with his boyhood friends in McCloud, where he was born.

Bob's joyous sense of humor delighted many groups. He was a great story-teller and more often than not, he was the butt of the joke himself.

Christmas was a fantastically busy time for Bob. He distributed gifts and cards like the original Santa Claus.

Although he had had many honors and personal satisfactions, the most exciting tribute was his retirement dinner on June 7, when more than 400 people turned out at Berkeley House. There is some satisfaction in realizing he died knowing he was loved.

A personal note kind of tells the story of Bob. My mother felt guilty going to his dinner because there was a shortage of hostesses and she thought others might mean more to him. When the dinner was over, I asked Bob please say hello to mother.

Robert G. Dennis Suffers Fatal Attack July 12

Robert G. Dennis

Friends from all walks of life paid final tribute yesterday morning to Robert G. Dennis, 60, who died suddenly Friday afternoon while visiting friends in Larkspur in Marin County.

Mr. Dennis, Albany resident since 1940, founded the Albany Adult school in 1941 and was its principal until his retirement on his 60th birthday, last April 6.

He died five weeks to the day after a community-wide retirement party in his honor, which he had described as "the happiest occasion of my life."

Mr. Dennis and a friend, Chester Carpenter of East Oakland, had been visiting former residents of McCloud, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Mills, in Larkspur when the Albany man slumped over. The Fire Department was called but he was pronounced dead on arrival at the local hospital. Death, caused by an acute collapse of a coronary artery, was instantaneous.

City and school flags were at half mast in his memory.

Obituary

Born in McCloud April 6, 190.., Mr. Dennis was one of two sons of the late George and Katheryn Dennis. His brother died as a teenager. He attended McCloud grammar school, St. Mary's High school and was graduated from the University High school in Oakland. In 1929, he was graduated from the University of California in Berkeley. After teaching three years at St. Ignatius High school in San Francisco, during which time he received his master's degree in political science and studied law for two years, he taught at Yreka High school three years.

From 1935-39, he was County Superintendent of Schools of Siskiyou County. During a year of further graduate study at UC, he taught in the San Francisco evening school. In 1940, he came to Albany, where he worked in the superintendent's office until organizing Albany Adult school and becoming its first principal in 1941, the year he was married to the former Jeanneite McGinty in San Francisco.

He served in US Naval Intelligence from 1942-46. That year he returned to Albany as principal of the Adult school, a post he held until ill health forced his retirement this year.

Mr. Dennis was a member of St. Ambrose Catholic church; Berkeley council 1492, Knights of Columbus; Bayview aerie 2323, Fraternal Order of Eagles; post 292, American Legion; Albany Lions club, and had served as a member of the Board of Directors of Albany-Berkeley Red Cross chapter for many years. He was past chairman of United Crusade for Albany schools, an honorary Life Member of Albany PTAs, member of National Education association, California Teachers' association, California Association of Adult Education Administrators, and other professional organizations.

Humanitarian

Bob Dennis received honors for his work on behalf of a Leper Colony in Panama, which he visited in 1961 and realized their need for clothing. He returned and organized large-scale clothing drives for the victims in 1962 and 1963. A continuing charity was a mission in the Philippine Islands, for which he sold artifacts to help support it.

Pharmacy Pair Rewarded

SAM'S PHARMACY Pharmacist Harry Skinkle and Cosmetician Blanche Rumbaugh smile happily with their $50 reward check sent to them by a grateful Master Charge. They trapped a woman passing a stolen Master Charge credit card in Sam's Pharmacy last week. According to police, almost $2,000 worth of purchases had been made on the stolen card before the arrest.

Officer Jim Simmons Injured in Bank Holdup

Albany Police Officer Jim Simmons suffered fractured facial bones and a slight concussion Wednesday afternoon as he single-handedly apprehended a man who had just robbed Tamalpais Savings and Loan of $435.

He had pinned the gun-toting robber to the vault with his gun arm above his head when Sgt. James McLeod appeared on the scene, followed in minutes by Inspector Art Smith.

When Simmons entered the rear door of the bank in response to a silent alarm, he saw a well-dressed man standing near the partially-open door to the safe. Simmons asked where the women (Manager Delcie Thompson and Assistant Cashier Helen Bailey) were.

"They're in here," the man said, indicating the vault. "I'm a customer."

Simmons said that although everything looked all right, he asked the man to keep his hands where the officer could see them.

At this point, Mrs. Thompson came out of the vault.

"Tell him I'm all right," the man told her.

The man moved to his briefcase on the table, and while Mrs. Thompson was between him and Officer Simmons, he whipped out a chrome revolver. Simmons could see it was loaded. He had not drawn his service revolver.

Now in command of the situation, the robber threatened to kill Simmons. He directed him to turn around, which the officer did.

("I started to say my 'Hail Marys'," Simmons said later.)

The robber came up behind the

HOSPITALIZED

Police Officer Bernard Johnson, who has been off work for two weeks due to a back injury, is now a patient at Albany hospital undergoing tests.

Inter-Club Council Meets Tomorrow

The July meeting of Albany Inter-Club Council will begin at 8 a.m. tomorrow (Thursday) morning at the Chamber of Commerce office.

President Al Thorogood has urged all representatives to attend because some reorganization is necessary.

Council Meets Half Hour Monday Night

With Mayor Richard O. Clark absent for the second week because of active reserve duty, the four remaining Council members made quick work of a light agenda Monday night, adjourning in half an hour.

In response to a request from the Board of Education that a joint meeting on after-school recreation programs be held at 7 p.m. Monday, July 29, Council voted to make the discussion the first item on the agenda at 8 p.m. so School Board members would not have to remain for the entire meeting.

Following a report from Robert Nishiyama regarding "Summer Help 68," a program to find jobs for Albany teenagers, Councilmen voted to go on record as supporting the program.

Filed were communications from G. C. Denney of 846 Santa Fe Ave.; Greyhound bus lines, indicating a proposal to increase fares and express by four per cent; from AC Transit District, notifying Council it will receive $91.08 as its share of taxes for the purchase of 15 new buses; from Sen. Nicholas Petris, indicating agreement with Albany in support of AB 1797.

A letter from Congressman Jeffery Cohelan concerning preservation of a Richmond lighthouse will be forwarded to Richmond City Council.

The recommendation of Police Chief Ralph M. Jensen and Administrative Officer James B. Turner to eliminate one-hour parking on Ventura adjoining Solano was unanimously adopted as was the exemption for a business license tax for Mission Rebels in Action, as recommended by Treasurer Marietta B. Ferreira.

An ordinance regulating new hours and days for burning as Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. was passed to print (see legals today). Resolutions authorizing the Fire Department to hire five Albany teenagers for the weed burning program and to authorize the mayor to execute an extension with the county for library services also were adopted.

Councilman Lewis Howell's motion to prepare a resolution of commendation for Police Officer James Simmns and Sgt. James McLeod for risking their lives while arresting an armed bank robber passed unanimously. Jerry Talley seconded the motion under "Good of the City" with "about all they get out of it is a pat on the back once in a while."

The meeting was adjourned in memory of Robert G. Dennis, "an outstanding citizen of Albany."

LYNN DAVIS SUGGESTS LOBBYIST FOR PEOPLE

Everyone seems to have a lobby that represents a group or business, but WHERE are the lobbies for the people? The little guy . . . the you and I.

A People Lobby would not be an insult to any elected representative . . . he would be a liason for them.

Our lobbyist would be a listener, and in turn a source of education. He or she would be elective and not political, and also unpaid. A new bureau in government is about the last thing we need.

Election

Since elections as they now are, are expensive . . . this one should not be. Why not have the many dedicated people in each town get out on a door-to-door campaign, having the peple of the town suggest three people that they think are fair minded and have the interest of their community as a prime concern. The law of averages will have 10 names being predominate. I suggest two people being elected . . . one of the age group of 21 to 35, and another in the age group of 30-55. We automatically have the "judges" elected by the people. They are the remaining names on the list. (Mayors and City Council not eligible to be elected.)

Lobbyists could be paid on an agreed expense basis. If salaries were involved, we are creating another problem, cost and pressure.

Duties

To listen and return to the people of his community all bills and suggested bills that concern the people of the community. The lobbyist would not have to be in Sacramento every day, just those times that proposed bills are coming up that concern the community. The lobbyist would have the use of the City Council meetings as his platform, and the support of the town papers.

The lobbyist would meet with the elected representatives and advise him or them of the needs and wants of the community. He would not supercede the representative, but merely advise him of our wants.

Term

Suggested one year term.

Isn't it time that instead of being interested in being involved, we get involved with interest?

Real Estate

A beginning class in Real Estate, open to those residing in or out of Albany, is being offered by the Albany Adult summer school, 603 Key Route Blvd.

It will be taught by William Ioppe, a practicing real estate agent. Designed as an aid for those persons interested in preparing for the State license examination, the course is also popular with those who wish to increase their general knowldge of real estate for personal reasons. The class will meet two evenings a week, Mondays and Wednesdays, through August 21.

This course is an introduction to the basic principles of real estate practice and will cover such pertinent topics as sales, lease and exchange agreements, mortgages, the effect of judgments, escrow processing and instruction in the use of the listing agreement.

Two From City Write For Encyclopaedia

Two Albany residents are among the more than 8,500 living contributors to the 1968 200th Anniversary Edition of the Encyclopaedia Britannica.

They are Darrell Althausen, Assistant to the Director, Western Regional Research Laboratory, author of the article on Curacao; and Roger Mansfield Reeve, Histologist, Western Utilization Research and Development Division, author of the article on Garrya, both with the U.S. Department of Agriculture.

The Encyclopaedie Britannica, first published in Edinburgh, Scotland, in 1768, has been American-owned since 1901.

This Is Mosquito Control Week

Mosquito Control Week is July 14-20.

More than 60 agencies throughout California, itching to tell the public about mosquitoes, have seized upon MCW as a slapping good opportunity to call attention to their favorite subject.

Over $8 million is spent annually in California's mosquito control programs—and it's worth every cent of it to keep the little pests controlled within the thousands of square miles where they live, love and reproduce.

"Mosquito control and prevention are important facets of public health activity that have made California a good place to live," said Dr. Louis F. Saylor, State Department of Public Health Director.

"Mosquito Control Week is every week for the Mosquito Abatement District staffs. We salute them."

He recalled the days when vast areas went unused in California because the mosquito occupation made comfortable living impossible.

Most mosquito control work is done by mosquito abatement districts, and a few local health departments that have their own programs. The State Department of Public Health also is involved in statewide preventive planning and technical guidance. The Department's Bureau of Vector Control keeps an eye on weather conditions, both current and forecast, as well as insecticide resistance and potential breeding areas.

Mosquito control has eliminated the once widespread menace of malaria, which 100 years ago even forced the shut-down of some mining operations in the Mother Lode. Today the malaria potential from Asia via infected individuals is carefully watched by the State Department of Public Health.

Encephalitis, a mosquito transmitted disease of continuing potential menace because it can't be completely eliminated, is kept under control by mosquito abatement staffs.

Curiously, California's rapid urbanization and increased irrigation would spread the mosquito problem, except for the agencies dedicated to control it. But mosquito control can never be a success without the public's cooperation. The pests breed in any standing water. Population expansion creates millions of new breeding places. Swimming pools, old tires, bird baths and flower pots are "hot houses" for mosquito production. Even rain water or lawn sprinkling often provides mosquito nurseries by collecting in puddles and street catch basins.

Dr. Saylor said, "We remind the public to search out and control breeding places around their own homes. A Culex mosquito can lay 2,000 eggs in her lifetime, and it's only a shy two weeks from egg to adult. One open container of water sitting unnoticed in the back yard can be the means of spoiling a barbecue party."

Albany Police Department

Albany police handled 701 cases, arrested 67 persons and watched over the homes of 52 vacationing residents during May, according to the monthly report.

There were 6,788 police radio calls and 17 street light and water leak reports.

Patrol arrests included 34 drunk; four protective custody; three each, stolen property, outside warrant and narcotics; two each, weapons laws, drunken driving, tip sheets, counterfeit, incorrigible and business license, and one each, insanity, lodger, battery, ABC Act, burglary, altered currency and mayhem.

Police travelled a total of 13,274 miles and were involved in a total of 7,700 public contacts during the month of May.

There were nine hospital runs in the patrol cars and 20 in the police ambulance. Police were called on seven casualties, 34 drunks, eight dog bites, 14 fire calls, seven inhalator calls, registered 21 guns, investigated two hit-runs, 10 injury accidents and 16 non-injury accidents. Thirteen autos were impounded.

Fifteen persons were aided, 10 domestic disputes were arbitrated, 11 civilians were fingerprinted, 19 doors were found unlocked, three hazards were removed, three persons were locked out and the police investigated one suspicious character and 32 suspicious circumstances. Nine persons called police because they were frightened.

There were two auto burglaries, seven business burglaries, six residence burglaries and one attempted burglary. Thirty-four persons were found disturbing the peace, one was arrested for indecent exposure.

Other reports involved six auto thefts, 10 fictitious checks, five prowlers, five school loiterers, two defrauding an inkeeper, two false fire alarms, three robberies, one trespassing and five violations of weapons laws.

Lost and stolen property and fictitious checks for the month totalled $13,336.10. Found and recovered property and restitution totalled $6,281.

Seven hundred and sixty-one citations were issued in May, bringing the total for the year to 4,423. There were 154 moving violations, 39 non-moving violations and 568 parking violations, totalling 711, 216 and 3,493 for the year respectively.

With 29 bicycles registered during the month, the total of bicycles registered as of May 31 was 12,040 in the city. Twelve bicycles were reported stolen, three recovered and seven found during the month.

Fifty-nine mug shots were taken in May and three crime or accident scenes were photographed.

Six live dogs were picked up and turned over to Berkeley Humane. Eleven live cats also were turned over. Six dogs were impounded for bite observation and one dog was disposed of at the owner's request. Three dead dogs and 11 dead cats were picked up.

The juvenile division reports 22 boys and 10 girls arrested for offenses ranging from malicious mischief to marijuana. Three girls and one boy were picked up for petty theft, two boys on marijuana charges and one on liquor. Loitering, incorrigible, runaway and disturbing the peace accounted for most of the other arrests although two boys and two girls were placed in protective custody.

SENIOR CITIZENS

846 Masonic Ave.

by Emma Claymore

July days seem to be lazy days with not too much activity at the Center.

Some members are on vacation, some catching up on home work, gardens, etc.

The old-fashioned "take your own lunch" picnic at Lake Chabot on June 26 was quite a success. The free launch ride around the lake was the high light of the day. The planned trip Wednesday, July 24, to see the Ice Follies at Winterland in San Francisco still has a few seats available. Call Minnie at 526-3078 for reservations.

We were happy to welcome back three former members who have not attended for some time —Mr. and Mrs. James Valentine and Lola Brown expect to be active members again.

Florence Jacobs is confined to Alta Bates hospital. Cards will be welcome.

Our usually active Maria Olivera was involved in a car accident with her son while he was bringing her to the Center to board the bus for the Lake Chabot picnic. The car overturned and was totally demolished. Her son received some cuts and bruises but although Maria had to be removed through a broken window, she insisted she was OK and went on to the picnic. Next day was another story, however, and the doctor discovered some broken ribs. Maria is now doing her sleeping in a chair bolstered by pillows, but she says she is better.

Community Service workers did some work for the Berkeley-Albany PTA council, which serves needy children. They mended and laundered used clothing which had been donated. A letter of appreciation was received.

Some interesting scrapbooks for hospitals have also been made. They are working on Christmas tags to be sold by the Cystic Fibrosis foundation.

For further information, call the Center at 526-1601 or the Park and Recreation department at 525-5704.

JIM SIMMONS, one of our fav- ite police officers, had a pretty ssy face after his encounter th a robber at Tamalpais Sav- gs and Loan last Wednesday. e thing we worry about is, why d one officer have to answer ll call alone? He could have en a dead martyr before help rrived. We hope Council pro- ides the extra man the Police epartment is asking for.

DICK McSHEEHY, Albany re Prevention officer, explained w burning regulations at a eeting of Kiwanis club Thurs- ay. The Fire Department is ly. The Fire Department is eryous to get the word out on e change which goes into effect e week. Al Thorogood was pro- am chairman.

ATTENDED a historic first in bany last Thursday night—the st trial board session under a arter amendment passed by ters last April. Much of it was etty ho-hum and it lasted from 30 p.m. until midnight. It was nducted like an informal jury al but was complicated by the t that nobody knew exactly w to proceed.

WILLEM VOOGD, Sr., father the owner of the Blue Mill o is a junior, will be coming re on his first visit to America m. He lives in Enschede, lland.

Robert G. Dennis

Children in his neighborhood, 849 Madison, always received Easter baskets and Christmas gifts from Mr. Dennis, who had no children of his own. In addition, he remembered those who were ill—not with one get-well card, but one a day.

Rosary services were held at Ellis-Olson mortuary Monday night. Following services at the mortuary Tuesday morning, Requiem High Mass was conducted at St. Ambrose Catholic church. Interment was in St. Joseph's cemetery, San Pablo.

Celebrant of the Mass was The Rt. Rev. Msgr. Harry Markham, pastor of Holy Rosary church in Woodland and a childhood friend of Mr. Dennis.

Acting pallbearers were Carl J. MacWilliams and Alan Vincent, members of Albany Lions club; William Woolworth and Albany Adult School Principal Larry Hughes, representing the schools; Former Albany Superintendent of Schools Paul Bryan and Mr. Carpenter of East Oakland, longtime friend who was with him at the time of his death.

Honorary pallbearers were Robert Nehls and Charles Pinkham, members of the Board of Education; Ed Pederson, former principal of Berkeley Adult school; Ralph Jensen, Albany Chief of Police; William Feeny, former Dean of Boys at Albany High school, and Carroll Snyker of Ross.

He is survived by his wife, Jeannette, at the family home, 849 Madison St.

Mrs. Dennis has requested memorials to the charity of the donor's choice. Many friends are sending contributions to St. Anthony's Dining Room, St. Boniface church, 133 Golden Gate Ave., San Francisco, a charity which feeds indigent men.

Officer Simmons

officer, tugging at Simmons' revolver, which was in its holster. As the man leaned around, Simmons grabbed the robber's gun arm, pushing it up with a "death grip." The robber straightened up, smashing Simmons in the face with his fist. Although hurt, Simmons did not black out or let go of the arm. They were struggling when Sergeant McLeod appeared.

While Officer Simmons went to seek medical aid, McLeod and Smith took the man to the police station.

Mrs. Thompson told police the man had come in with a brief case and had been businesslike about making a real estate loan. Then he opened the case and pulled out the revolver, saying, "You know what this is."

He had demanded the cash drawer and removed the currency before herding the women into the vault. He was trying to close the door, impossible because of a safety ramp, when Officer Simmons arrived.

The robber, identified as David Caspino, 30, of Pacific Palisades was released to the FBI Thursday because of his implication in many other robberies. Alameda County District Attorney's office is charging him with the assault on Simmons.

Simmons, who had five days off because of his injuries, said, "I'm not interested in becoming a hero. I'm just happy to be alive."

ALBANY'S FIRST TRIAL BOARD SESSION HELD

A near-capacity audience attended the first session of an Albany trial board at Albany City Council chambers last Thursday night.

The hearing had Police Sgt. Emil Zugnoni as complainant and Police Chief Ralph Jensen as defendant over a fine imposed by Jensen on Zugnoni for failure to obey a direct order from a superior officer.

Zugnoni's attorney was Peter Franck of American Civil Liberties Union. Jensen was represented by City Attorney Larry Sale.

Burton Lewis, chairman of the Civil Service Board, presided. Other members of the trial board are Civil Service Board Members Herbert Rubin and Roy Harford; Fire Department Captain Raul Miranda and City Employee Tony Kalberer, who represented city employees not affiliated with the department involved, and Ruth Lyons and John Mullarky, appointed by Zugnoni.

After hearing testimony from 7:30 until midnight, which was taken down by alternating court reporters, who are paid by the city, the trial board adjourned for deliberation. Within 15 days, it is to come to a decision. According to the charter amendment which created the board last April, it may amend, modify or concur in the punishment levied by Jensen.

The incident at issue occurred July 5, 1967, when a home burglary was reported and an officer was needed to seek evidence and take fingerprints at the scene. Police Officer James Simmons and Sgt. Glenn Thompson, who usually do the work, were unavailable. Chief Jensen told the man on the desk to call Zugnoni, who had more than 15 years experience in identification work.

Zugnoni refused to go when called. He then called Jensen and told him he was not going. Jensen suspended him without pay for 15 days. In ensuing months, Zpgnoni was successful in having the suspension expunged from his record and receiving pay for the period. Jensen then fined him under provisions of the charter amendment. Zugnoni's attorney requested a hearing before the trial board.

Zugnoni contends he was not competent to do ID work. Jensen contends he was the most qualified to do the work at that time because Simmons and Thompson were not available.

All Star Games

Albany Little League's Senior Division All Stars played their first tournament game last night in San Lorenzo.

If they are winners today, they will continue on Thursday, July 18, 5:45, at the Arroyo High school varsity diamond No. 1 in San Lorenzo. The winner of this playoff will return the next night, Friday, July 19, and hopefully will double back on Saturday, July 20.

The National League All Stars will open in the University Village Saturday, July 20, at 1 p.m. against Fruitvale American. The winner of this game will continue Wednesday, July 24, at 6 p.m. in San Lorenzo. The third and fourth games to be played at the San Lorenzo diamonds will be Friday, July 26, at 6 p.m. and Saturday, July 27, at 1 p.m.

Each game played in Little League baseball is "sudden death."

Tournament play beyond the above dates are not available at this writing but will be published as soon as received.

Literature Offered

Literature is among the summer school offerings of the AlbanyA dult school, 603 Key Route Blvd. Open to adults regardless of residence, it is scheduled for Thursday afternoons, 1 to 3 p.m. through Aug. 22. The course has as its basic objective the enhancement of the students' understanding and appreciation of the various literary works and styles.

Opportunity will be provided in the classfor the discussion and the analysis of selected works of 20th century novelists. The reading will include popular shorter works of fiction by such writers as Faulkner, Tolstoy, and Mann, among others . The first reading selection will be Camus' "The Stranger."

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING

NOTICE is hereby given that the Albany City Council will, on Monday, July 29, 1968, at 8 PM, or as near thereafter as is possible, hold a public hearing to act upon arguments relative to the recommendations of the City Planning Commission that an interim freeze on the waterfront be extended for a period of one year.

The initial freeze was enacted by Ordinance No. 67-04, and pursuant to Section 65858 of the Government Code, an additional period is necessary to allow time for adequate study and evaluation. The extension would provide that "No permit for the erection of any building or structure, or license or permit for the conduct of any uses inconsistent with the General Plan uses shall be issued for a period of one year."

The area affected is that area commonly known as the Albany Waterfront and more particularly described as follows:

"That area bordered on the east by Hoffman Boulevard from the northerly city limits to Buchanan Street; and bordered on the east by the Eastshore Freeway from Buchanan Street to the southerly city limits, and bordered on the south by the southerly city limits; and bordered on the west by the westerly city limits, and bordered on the north by the northerly city limits."

At such Public Hearing all interested persons will be given an opportunity to be heard.

Dated: July 11, 1968.

LEGAL NOTICE

ORDINANCE NO. 68 - 011

AN ORDINANCE OF THE CITY OF ALBANY AMENDING ORDINANCE 791, SECTION 108 THEREOF, TO PROVIDE FOR A CHANGE IN THE ALLOWABLE BURNING DAYS AND CHANGING THE TIME THEREOF.

THE COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF ALBANY DOES ORDAIN AS FOLLOWS:

Section 1: That Section 108 of Ordinance 791 is hereby amended to add the days of Wednesday, Friday and Sunday to the list of no-burning days, and to change the hours of burning from before 7:00 a.m. to before the hour of 9:00 a.m. Said Ordinance 791, Section 108 thereof, shall hereafter read as follows:

"ORDINANCE 791. Sec. 108. Rubbish burning permitted only in approved incinerator for which a permit has been granted. Rubbish, including waste paper, straw, dry grass or weeds, and all other classes of combustible materials, shall not be burned in the City except in an incinerator, or for which a valid, unexpired permit has been issued by the Chief, as provided in this chapter. No such permit shall be issued except where, in the judgment of the Chief, the incinerator for which the permit is to be granted is of such type, and is located in such place, that such burning will not endanger life or property. No burning of any sort shall be conducted on Monday, Wednesday, Friday or Sunday. No burning of any sort shall be conducted on windy days, or on days when the humidity is low. No burning shall be conducted on days when, in the judgment of the Chief, the burning could be dangerous to person or property. No burning shall be conducted after the hour of 3:00 p.m. on any day. No such burning shall start before the hour of 9:00 a.m."

Section 2: This Ordinance shall be published once in the "Albany Times", a newspaper of general circulation within the City of Albany, which said newspaper is designated for that purpose, and shall become effective on and after its final passage, adoption and publication.

Obituaries

ALMA BARTRAM

Funeral services will be held Thursday, July 18, at 11 a.m. at the chapel of the Ellis-Olson Mortuary for Alma J. Bartram. Rites will be conducted by Rev. Bernard L. Rice of the El Cerrito Methodist church. Mrs. Bartram, a native of San Francisco, passed away in Martinez. She was a 30-year resident of El Cerrito.

Her survivors include a son, Duane D. Davis of Sausalito, and a daughter, Constance M. Moore of El Cerrito; a brother, Franklin Stieglitz of Albany, and three grandchildren, Claudine C. and Keith D. Davis and Randy L. Morris.

W. D. WEBB

W. D. Webb passed away last week in Albany after an illness. Mr. Webb had lived in Albany 25 years. He was a native of Arkansas, aged 60 years. His residence was 523 Cornell Ave. and he had been with Jacuzzi Pumps for 20 years.

Many friends attended the funeral services at Ellis-Olson Mortuary last Monday, July 15, at 1 p.m. The Rev. Palmer Watson of MacArthur Community Baptist church in San Pablo conducted the rites.

Mr. Webb leaves his daughter, Druceleia Hobbs and her husband, Raymond, who is an Albany businessman; grandson, Dennis Hobbs, all of Albany; his mother, Minnie Harvey of Arkansas, and brothers and sister, Leonard Webb of Delano, Albert Webb of Hayward, Nellie Holt of Arkansas, Preston Harvey of Richmond, Arlis Harvey of Concord, and Paul Harvey of Nebraska.

LETTERS

(Opinions expressed in Letters to the Editor are those of the writers and not necessarily those of the Times. This newspaper reserves the right to edit letters to suit space limitations or to eliminate material which might be considered libelous.)

Editor, the Times:

Thought you might like to know that on July 4, this year, there were 15 Flags displayed in the 1000 block on Talbot Avenue. Last year (1967) there were six. We are very proud of this increase and hope that the next patriotic holiday will show an even greater increase.

Yours very truly,
A RESIDENT

Editor, the Times:

Good for Mike Long and Jim Wright! I'm glad somebody could fight City Hall, as you said. We couldn't, and our neighbors weren't so concerned as theirs.

How come such a big fuss over a little bit of cement? And then, this past week, in the next block behind the Martinizing Cleaners, allow someone to put in a parking lot and pave about 200 feet of parking strip along Santa Fe, a crime much worse than that of the two fellows above.

I guess it just depends on how big a taxpayer you are! We put up with our no-sewer problem for one year and 11 months without any help from City Hall. No one from our "new" City Hall came around to see us in all that time except a flunky from the Health Dept, who stopped once to see if we had any mosquitos.

We finally got our sewer line hooked up but during the time we were in trouble, we changed our opinion of Albany. We have a one-family boycott against Albany and will not spend any money here. All our money goes elsewhere, especially El Cerrito.

Sincerely,
G. C. DENNEY
846 Santa Fe Ave.

FIREMEN'S AUXILIARY THANKED BY SERVICEMEN

Members of the Albany Ladies auxiliary of California State Firemen's association have received thank you letters from three servicemen to whom they sent packages. They tried to obtain the addresses of all local boys in the service in order to remember them.

Mike Branning wrote: "You can't possibly imagine how surprised I was to receive two packages today. Needless to say, they were greatly appreciated by myself and the rest of the guys in my division. The packages arrived in good condition and we immediately set to the task of devouring them. I know you and your organization must have put a lot of time and effort into the packages. We all thank you very much.

"Our particular division is not engaged in any actual combat. We provide and try to maintain a communications network for the entire area. Still we are all a long way from home and any kind of mail at all from home or from the States is very welcome."

From Doug Fisher: "I would like to thank you and your organization from the bottom of my heart for your kind thoughts. I received the two packages yesterday in fine shape. They certainly were a welcome sight.

"At present there is little more for us to worry about other than Charlie. It has just rained steadily for a half hour and I am sitting in six inches of water on my barracks floor. That makes it nice too."

From Terry Culley: "Thank you so very much for the two 'care' packages. . . . I received them both today. All the goodies are gone now, as the whole first platoon shared in your wonderful gifts. I really enjoyed them and I know all the guys did too. Such thoughtfulness is hard to express, and a thanks for everything.

"All I can say is that receiving your package today made being away from home a little more enjoyable. Knowing that people such as you still exist back in the 'world' also helps make life a bit easier over here. With the knowledge that people do care back home, this year in Vietnam doesn't seem so long. . . ."

Eastern Star

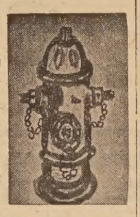
Albany chapter 550, Order of Eastern Star, will have their Master's and Patrons' party July [illegible] Albany Temple, 533 San [illegible]e., at 8 p.m.

Worthy Matron and Patron [illegible]d Fred Cameron are in charge of the meeting.

General chairman is Clara Goldman, past matron.

Refreshment committee members are Helen May Goldman, past matron, and Echo Wendover. Entertainment will be by the Sweet Adelines. Visiting members are welcome.

Fire Plug



Appliances can get "tired." Repair or replace them at first signs of "old age." Watch for worn cords, overheating motors, or arcing connections on electrical devices. Check for gas appliance pilot failure.

Buy appliances that have the "safety tested" Underwriters Laboratory (UL) label or American Gas Association (AGA) label.

Normally electrical appliances will serve you well with good use, it is the misuse that causes all the trouble.

Where's The Fire?

Albany Fire Department calls:

July 5, grass fire, corner 8th and 9th, extinguished.

July 5, washdown, freeway, north of Gilman, following auto accident.

July 8, dwelling fire, 1492 Marin, Mrs. Reynold Foss reported house fullof smoke, found headlights left on all night had ignited a foam bumper protector and blaze in front wall of garage, extinguished.

July 10, public serivce, 1248 Marin, kitten which had been in a tree a couple of days rescued.

Stretch & Sew

MRS. EILEEN WEDDLE, who teaches Stretch and Sew technique of sewing with knit fabrics at Fashion Knits in Albany, is shown with Ann Person, originator of the technique, at a recent convention in Eugene, Ore. Mrs. Weddle started teaching last October, has taught in Berkeley, Albany, Hayward, Walnut Creek and Antioch. Among her more than 175 students was Mrs. Carmen Ford, who opened Fashion Knits in Albany after taking a Stretch and Sew class.

Letter

Editor, the Times:

Well! The Wonder Workers of education, Allah and his magazines, are to review the school budget for the coming year. Glory Hallelujah, they have another salary increase of seven per cent in the works. He and his court are slowly starving to death.

Every new budget or bond issue must have an increase of salaries while the taxpayers' lot gets worse.

Poor Allah, "the Supreme One" must suffer greatly, living on such a low income as $21,000.00 per year. As for the teachers, they are not in the low brackets by any means.

In this new budget are several items listed as "Other Expenses" which is only a small sum of $314,166.00. Did I say small? Well, if a salesman padded his expense account with "Other Expenses" he would soon be out of a job. You, the taxpayers, think it over. Why weren't those "Other Expenses" listed for what they are?

We were told that the old high school had been remodeled, that the building program was completed. Now they talk of more remodeling.

The Royal Court is screaming about the 35 cents tax that is to go on the ballot to be taken off the city tax roll. What are they screaming about? This is a tax the city adopted when our schools were young. It is a tax that has been collected by the city and given to the school district and reported by the city. The School Board did not have to report it because it was never collected by them. Has this been a part of the gravy train?

They say the city has other use for the tax. How can the city use taxes that are being eliminated?

You, the taxpayers, can do more asking. Get busy and ask questions and do not be misled by double talk.

Legion Auxiliary Meets Monday

American Legion auxiliary, Albany unit 292, will hold its regular meeting July 22 at 8 p.m. at the Veterans' Memorial building.

Mrs. Beverly Willis, the retiring president, will be honored at a party after the meeting. Mrs. Maud Talmadge, president-elect, is in charge of the party. Mrs. Willis will occupy the Junior Past President's chair during the coming year.

At the regular meeting held on July 8 the members heard the convention reports given by the five delegates who attended the convention in Fresno.

The Canasta club of the unit will meet at the home of Mrs. Beverly Willis for dessert and cards on July 19 at 12:30 p.m.

ALBANY YOUTH ATTENDS ENGINEERING SCHOOL

Edward W. Madrid, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Madrid, 1248 Brighton Avenue, Albany, is currently enrolled as a student in the Calhoon MEBA Engineering school to learn to become a licensed engineer in the United States Merchant Marine.

Located in Baltimore, Md., the school began its second year of operation on Oct. 1, 1967. Because of the extreme shortage of licensed engineers aboard American-flag merchant vessels, it was established in 1966 by the National Marine Engineers' Beneficial Association (AFL-CIO) and is financed by the shipowners in an agreement with the engineers' union.

About 400 young men are presently enrolled in the two-year crash course which begins with six months of classroom training, followed by a year as an apprentice aboard an American merchant vessel, and then another six months in classroom. All the time a young man is undergoing training, he is paid $200 per month and provided with lodging and meals at the school's headquarters in a former downtown hotel in Baltimore. The school is located in Maryland because of the influence of Representative Edward A. Garmatz (D.-Md.), chairman of the House Merchant Marine and Fisheries committee.

Young Madrid, 18, is now in the classroom study group learning about ships and the basics of engineering before he goes aboard a ship for his year's training as an apprentice engineer.

When he completes that year at sea, he will return to the school for six more months of classroom study and then sit before a Coast Guard board in examination for his third engineer's license. Once he receives that, he will be able to go to sea as a fullfledged marine engineer.

To qualify, a young man must be a high school graduate or be able to pass the high school equivalent examination. He must maintain passing grades during the entire course and maintain a good moral record.

Madrid is a graduate of Albany High school. He enrolled in the Calhoon MEBA Engineering school last May 13.

New classes are formed every two or three weeks. Each class consists of only 20 to 25 youths. The school is programmed to have about 500 students in the classroom and at sea at the same time.

Any youth between the ages of 18 to 25 who is interested in joining the program should contact Roy Luebbe, Director, Calhoon MEBA Engineering School, 9 Light St., Baltimore, Md. 21202.

Are You Driving With Illegal Lights?

Many Californians are driving cars with illegal lights, not knowing they are violating the law.

"Most of the illegal lights are on sports cars, and are not part of the original equipment," according to California Highway Patrol.

"Mail purchases account for most of these illegal driving and fog lamps, but some are on cars being sold as used vehicles or on cars originally registered in another state."

Some of the lights are illegal because they are designed for racing and, therefore, have a higher light output than is allowed by California law on passenger cars. Others are manufactured to European standards, which are different from American standards.

"Driving or fog lights bought from established dealers in California will probably be legal because parts suppliers know how to determine that their lights meet regulations," Captain Edkins said. "If you think the lights on your car may be illegal, come in to the Patrol office and we will check them out."

Stitchery Course

Albany Adult school has scheduled two classes of "Stitchery and Tapestry Weaving" during the summer session which runs through Aug. 23.

Those with or without needlecraft experience may enroll. The two textile-craft units of study will emphasize the development and recognition of each student's personal interest, style, and initiative; the integration of color and design concepts; and variations of basic designs.

Both classes convene on Tuesdays at the Albany Methodist church. One session is held from 9 a.m. to noon, the other from 7 to 10 p.m.

Beginning First Aid

A new series of Red Cross First Aid classes for beginners will be conducted this summer at the Berkeley chapter, 2116 Allston Way.

Sessions will start Tuesday, July 16, and meet from 7 to 9:15 p.m. every Tuesday and Thursday thereafter through July 30. Instruction is free of charge. There is a 75 cent charge for a first aid textbook, if one is needed.

The course is open to adults and to anyone 11 years of age or in the 6th grade. On successful completion of the series the Standard First Aid Certificate will be issued to those over 14.

Booster Club Membership Drive

Albany Athletic Booster club will stage the first annual membership drive during the month of July.

All Albany parents are urged to join.

Those wishing to obtain a membership at $2 per person have been asked to contact Mr. and Mrs. James Scoggins at 525-7[illegible].

The next general meeting will be in August. Details will be published in advance in the Times.

DESSERT WHIST

A dessert whist party, sponsored by Albany ladies auxiliary 2658, Veterans of Foreign Wars, will be held at Albany Veterans Memorial building at noon Tuesday, July 16. Bess Carbis is chairman, assisted by Helen Ross and Mary Church. The public is invited for food and fun.

FIDELIS WHITE SHRINE

Fidelis White Shrine 60 will have a stated meeting Monday, July 22, at 8 p.m. with Worthy High Priesess Betty Sargent and Watchman of the Shepherds Roland Grisham presiding. Chairman for the evening will be Worthy Shepherdess Helen McKenzie.
